

Apply or nominate a candidate to join EdCuration's exclusive Certified #EdTrustee Program

What is the Certified #EdTrustee Program?

The #EdTrustee Program is a high-profile fellowship program of K-12 education leaders seeking to shape the market of instructional materials. EdCuration's network of curriculum developers and providers will engage with #EdTrustees to conduct micro-pilots of their programs, give expert feedback on their products, and deepen implementation of their instructional materials.

What are the benefits of joining?

- Access to free, cutting-edge instructional materials and professional learning
- Membership in a powerful community of practice
- Build personal thought leadership
- Broaden professional connections and potential career opportunities

What do EdTrustees have to do?

- Lead at least one, high-quality pilot of instructional resources per year. You select the resource.
- Participate and complete at least 3 online professional learning Explorations.
- Interact with program developers to provide feedback on instructional materials.
- Collaborate with a national network of education leaders to improve adoption practices.
- Participate in thought leadership opportunities through content creation and social media influence.

