

Connecting children to the wonders of their world.

Womple Studios is an educational toy company dedicated to sparking a love of learning. Through storytelling and play, we're inspiring the next generation of explorers. Our award-winning products are loved by kids, parents, and teachers alike for their play-forward and hands-on designs.

WompleBox (ages 6 to 11): a new country every month with a full-length adventure books and STEAM activities.

DinoGlows (ages 4+): plush dinosaurs that flip inside-out to reveal glow-in-the-dark fossils.

Seek N Find Puzzles (ages 4+): interactive jigsaw puzzles featuring festivals from around the world.

Coddi•womple (v.) - To travel purposefully towards an unknown destination.

Womple Studios was founded in 2019 by Princeton University graduates Erin McGarry and Alejandro Bras. Inspired by their multi-cultural upbringings, world travels, and shared love for education, they set out to build a company that would inspire kids to get out and explore. Womple Studios was born!
