

Shine is a musical performance for youth community engagement in resilience planning. It weaves together climate science and artistic expression into a funny and powerful story that spans 300 million years of geological time to convey how humanity, energy, and climate are interrelated.

Open source access to all materials for integrating Shine into your classroom
<http://www.insidethegreenhouse.org/shine>

JUST PUBLISHED!

Read about lessons learned from the world tour of Shine

Performance for Resilience: Engaging Youth on Energy and Climate through Music, Movement, and Theatre by Beth Osnes

<http://www.springer.com/us/book/9783319672885>

Contact: beth.osnes@colorado.edu

An Inside the Greenhouse production—retelling the stories of climate change
<http://www.insidethegreenhouse.org>

