Title:

Croc in the Lost Desert

Story:

One night in the zoo, Croc went on an adventure. He ventured across swamp lands, jungles and mountain regions. Eventually, he arrived in the Lost Desert.

After exploring for a few hours, he heard a voice shouting "what's your name?"

Croc turned around several times, but still couldn't see where it was coming from. All he could see was a pair of pyramids to his right. He shook his head and continued on his journey, as he tried to brush off the entire experience.

However, after his third step, he heard the same voice shout "please don't go!"
