

An Ethics-Based Kindergarten-6th Grade Social and Emotional Learning Curriculum

Built on Literacy, Critical Thinking and Active Learning Materials

Learning Communities Using Epic Ethics Benefit from:

- Authentic Long-Term Growth of Empathy and Decision making
- Simultaneous Improvement in Literacy and Relationship Skills
- Multicultural Resources which Support Critical Thinking
- Active Learning that Builds Ethical Leadership and Improves Peace
- Timesaving Tools that Teacher Want to Use

Schools, Districts, Communities Using Epic Ethics Receive a:

- 1:20 ROI
- Reduction in Mental Health Concerns and Costs
- Greater Lifetime Earnings in Participants
- Greater Likelihood of Graduation
- Reduction in Suicide
- Reduction in Criminal Activity, Violent Crime and Substance Abuse

Supporting Testimonials

“This curriculum is so important that I want my staff to use it first.”

Bev, Elementary Counselor, SEL Specialist, Denver, Colorado

“The authentic assessments allowed our team to identify a student that needed crucial mental health support.”

Heather, Chicago Public Schools

“Epic Ethics has saved me days worth of planning!”

Michelle, SEL Coach, Lakewood, Colorado

“After using Epic Ethics, my fifth graders are independently investigating their own unique cultures!”

Rachelle, teacher, Aurora Public Schools, Colorado.

“We needed this type of relevant instruction with SEL!”

Sarah, ECE/Kindergarten Support Specialist, Centennial Colorado

“I’m stunned by how comprehensive this curriculum is.”

Andrew, Principle, Denver Public Schools

“My entire district needs this, NOW!”

Lori, District Counselor, La Veda, Colorado